

Institutionalisation of Sciences in Early modern Europe

---

December, 4th

Max-Planck-Institut für Wissenschaftsgeschichte (Boltzmannstr. 22), Conference Room

---

- 10.30-10.50 Welcome and Introduction
- Research in Institutional Setting – Chair: Matteo Valleriani
- 10.50-11.40 Mordechai Feingold (Caltech, Pasadena), “Scientific Research in Institutional Setting: The Case of Early Modern England”
- 11.40-12.30 Pietro D. Omodeo (MPIWG, Berlin), “The Cartesianismus-Streit at the Academia Viadrina: Institutional Settings and Intellectual Constraints at Early Modern German Universities”
- 12.30-14.00 Lunch
- Founding and Shaping Scientific Institutions – Chair: Wijnand W.Mijnhardt
- 14.00-14.50 Ugo Baldini (University of Padua), “The emergence of the idea of a scientific academy in Italy, ca. 1550-1657. The times and the factors”
- 14.50-15.40 Giulia Giannini (MPIWG, Berlin), “The discourse about academies and its influence on shaping institutions: the Montmor’s Academy and the Accademia del Cimento”
- 15.40-16.10 Coffee break
- 16.10-17.00 Dalia Deias (Centre A. Koyré, EHESS, Paris) “The Project of the Early Paris Observatory and the Early Académie des Sciences”
- 17.00-17.50 Luís Miguel Carolino (CIUHCT, Lisboa), “The early Royal Academy of Sciences of Lisbon (1779-1807). Science, politics and institutional rivalry in Portugal”
- Dinner*
-

December, 5th

Fritz-Haber Villa, (side entrance Hittorfstrasse), 14195 Berlin-Dahlem

---

- Experiments and techniques – Chair: Mordechai Feingold
- 10.00-10.50 Pascal Briost, Aurélien Ruellet (Centre d’Etudes Supérieures de la Renaissance, Tours), “Scientific and technological Patronage between France and England in the early XVIIth Century”
- 10.50-11.40 Federica Favino (University of Rome “Sapienza” - Fondazione Roma) “Odd carts and mechanisms in the Accademia Fisico-Matematica of Rome. Only a caprice?”
- 11.40-12.10 Coffee break
- 12.10-13.00 Michael Bycroft (University of Warwick), “National styles revisited: collecting and experimenting at the Royal Society of London and the Paris Academy of Science, c. 1660-1740”
- 13.00-14.30 Lunch
- Narratives, propaganda, and publishing policies – Chair: Martin Urmann
- 14.30-15.20 Sabina Brevaglieri (Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz) “The Lincei: publishing policy and relationships with the papal Curia and court”.
- 15.20-16.10 Noah Moxham (University of St Andrews), “Rhetorics of science and publishing strategy in England and France in the late 17th century”
- 16.10-16.40 Coffee break
- Final discussion
- 16.50-17.40 Jürgen Renn and Florian Schmaltz (MPIWG, Berlin): Summarizing Commentaries - “Institutions and knowledge systems: theoretical perspectives”