

Geometrical, Astronomical and Geographical Notions of Space in the Renaissance

Berlin, May 19th 2014

Conference Room of the
Max Planck Institute for the History of Science

Boltzmannstraße 22
 14195 Berlin

- 10:30 – 11:30 MICHELA MALPANGOTTO (CNRS, Paris)
The heavenly space in Renaissance geometrical thought.
- 11:30 – 12:30 ANNA DE PACE (University of Milan)
Dismantling the traditional Cosmos: Tri-dimensionality in Galileo and Copernicus.
- Lunch*
- 13:30 – 14:30 JEAN-MARC BESSE (CNRS, Paris)
Mots et images de l'espace dans quelques traités de géographie au seizième siècle.
- 14:30 – 15:30 HENRIQUE LEITAO (University of Lisbon)
*Studying the earth with heavenly techniques:
 The construction of sixteenth century mathematical cosmography.*
- 16:00 – 17:00 ADAM MOSLEY (Swansea University)
Visualising space: lessons from the Cambridge Diagrams database, 1470-1650.
- 17:00 – 17:30 General Discussion

for any information please contact ANGELA AXWORTHY aaxworthy@mpiwg-berlin.mpg.de

Research Group on Modern Geometry and the Concept of Space

