

Thursday, May 6, 2010

2:15 Introduction

2:30 Prologue I

Great Britain
France
Germany
Italy

4:30 coffee break

5:00 Prologue II

Spain
Russia
Poland
Hungary

7:30 dinner reception at Harnack-Haus
(speakers invited, others please inquire)

Friday, May 7, 2010

9:30 Case Studies I

Peter J. Bowler (Queens U, Belfast)
Popular Science Magazines in Inter-War Britain

Bernadette Bensaude-Vincent (Paris X)
Popular Science and Politics in Interwar France

11:00 coffee break

11:30 Case Studies II

Paola Govoni (U Bologna)
From the 'Golden Age' of Popular Science to the Spreading of Idealism in Italy, 1880s-1930s

Arne Schirrmacher (MPIWG)
German Systems of Science Communication in the 1920s and 1950s

1:00 lunch break

2:30 Case Studies III

Agustí Nieto-Galan (U Autònoma, Barcelona)
Popularizing Science in Twentieth-Century Spain
Nationalism, Religion and the Media

Dietrich Beyrau (U Tübingen)
Commentary on
James T. Andrews: A Soviet Scientific Public
Sphere: From Lenin to Khrushchev's Times in Soviet Russia

4:00 coffee break

4:30–6:30 Case Studies IV

Leszek Zasztowt (PAN Warsaw)
Marxism and the Leap to the Kingdom of Science
An Unbearable Issue of 'Scientific Consciousness'

Jarosław Włodarczyk (PAN Warsaw/U Lublin)
Case Studies on Polish Science Communication

Tibor Frank (Eötvös Loránd U, Budapest)
The Communication of Nobel Prizes in Hungary

8:00 dinner party as private event

Saturday, May 8, 2010

(speakers only)

10:00–12:00 Publication Planning