

- Technological Encounters: Locating Experts in the History of Globalisation
Pretel, David (et al.)
- The Historical Roots of Modern Bridges: China's Engineers as Global Actors
Schäfer, Dagmar
- Indigenous Resistance and the Technological Imperative: From Chemistry in Birmingham to Camphor Wars in Formosa, 1860s–1914
Inkster, Ian
- Global Engineers: Professional Trajectories of the Graduates of the École des Arts et Manufactures (1830s–1920s)
Martykánová, Darina
- Re-Designing Africa: Railways and Globalization in the Era of the New Imperialism
Diogo, Maria Paula (et al.)
- The Global Rise of Patent Expertise During the Late Nineteenth Century
Pretel, David
- Networks of American Experts in the Caribbean: The Harvard Botanic Station in Cuba (1898–1930)
Fernandez-Prieto, Leida
- Breaking Global Standards: The Anti-metric Crusade of American Engineers
Vera, Hector
- Statistics as Service to Democracy: Experimental Design and the Dutiful American Scientist
Saraiva, Tiago (et al.)
- The Bona Fide Contracts: An Engineering Company in Wartime Shanghai, 1937–1945
Brasó Broggi, Carles
- Dutch Irrigation Engineers and Their (Post-) Colonial Irrigation Networks
Ertsen, Maurits W.

- Engineers and Scientist as Commercial Agents of the Spanish Nuclear Programme

Torre, Joseba (et al.)

- Engineers' Diplomacy: The South American Petroleum Institute, 1941–1950s

Zuleta, María Cecilia

- Epilogue: Technology's Activists and Global Dynamics

Inkster, Ian