

Workshop on Challenges to Translating Validity in Psychiatric Research Bordeaux 2021

October 14

1:30-1:45 General Introduction

The Extrapolation Challenge

1:45-2:25 Lara Keuck
Reframing Extrapolation as a Problem of Scope Validity

2:30-3:10 Catherine Belzung
Animal Models in Psychiatry:
Current Challenges

3:15-3:55 Lara Huber
Finding Your Way Through a Maze:
How Adequacy Qualifies Validity –
Lessons from Assessing Navigational Skills in Animals and Humans

3:55-4:15 Coffee Break

The Experimental Challenge

4:15-4:55 Antonine Nicoglou
Animal Model Tests and the Birth of Psychopharmacology

5:00-5:40 Cedric Brun
Inferential Stacking in Animal Models of Autism Spectrum Disorders:
Weakness or Necessary Evil of Translational Neuropsychiatry?

20:00 Conference dinner in a
Bordeaux restaurant

October 15

Lisa Malich 1:30-2:10
Translations of Correlational Validity in German Psychology of the 1950s

The Lexical Challenge

Alfred Freeborn 2:15-2:55
Invalidating "True Schizophrenia":
Practices of Validation in British Schizophrenia Research in the 1970s

Judith Kaplan 3:00-3:40
Beyond Translation:
Automatic and Artificial Approaches to Medical Meaning

Coffee Break 3:40-4:00

Steeves Demazeux 4:00-4:40
Anxiety Entering the Lab

General Discussion and Conclusion 4:40-5:30

Location:

Salle Montaigne
Bâtiment administratif, 2nd Floor
Université Bordeaux-Montaigne