本次暑期学校由中国科学院大学（UCAS）与马克斯·普朗克科学史研究所（MPIWG）联合主办。基于两所机构三个相互关联的研究小组——中国科学院大学孙萌萌博士领衔的“宇宙学知识的日常实践”、MPIWG 的 Stamatina Mastorakou 教授与 Jeffrey Kotyk 博士主持的“掌中天宇：欧亚非天文器物与星象实践”，以及 MPIWG 陈诗沛博士负责的“汉字文化圈的常识及其源流”，我们汇集了天文学史、占星学、宇宙论、日用知识及数字人文领域的代表性专家团队，在为期十天的活动中为研究生开设导论课程与研究讲座。

课程以古代中国及跨地域的星空知识史为核心，延伸至广义宇宙论及其日用实践、与更宽泛的日用知识研究，并将提供数字人文和视觉文化分析课程。欢迎从事以下方向的研究生申请：天文与占星知识的实践史、汉字文化圈日用知识的生成与演变，以及宇宙论与日用知识和技术的互嵌等。

This Summer School is co-organized by the University of Chinese Academy of Sciences (UCAS) and the Max Planck Institute for the History of Science (MPIWG). Based on three interrelated research groups at the two institutions — the “Daily Practices of Cosmological Knowledge” led by Dr. Sun Mengmeng at UCAS, “Heavens in Your Hand: Artifacts and Astral Practices In Eurasia and North Africa” led by Prof. Stamatina Mastorakou and Dr. Jeffrey Kotyk at MPIWG, and “Common Knowledge and Its Sources in the Sinosphere” led by Dr. Shih-Pei Chen at MPIWG, we bring a representative group of specialists on history of astronomy, astrology, cosmology, common knowledge, and digital humanities together to give introductory courses and research lectures at the School of Humanities, University of Chinese Academy of Sciences in Beijing, China over 10 days.

This course centers on the history of astral knowledge in ancient China and in cross-cultural contexts, extending to broader cosmological traditions and the study of everyday practical knowledge influenced by such traditions. It will also include training in digital humanities and visual culture analysis. We welcome applications from graduate students engaged in the following research areas: history of astronomical and astrological knowledge and practices; the formation and evolution of common knowledge within the Sinographic cultural sphere; and the interdependence and interplays of cosmology, common knowledge, and technologies.
