

The Bordeaux-Berlin Seminar Series on Translating Validity in Psychiatric Research

The “Philosophy of Clinics in Neuroscience and Psychiatry” Research Group, led by Steeves Demazeux at the Université de Bordeaux-Montaigne, and the “Practices of Validation in the Biomedical Sciences” Research Group, led by Lara Keuck at the Max Planck Institute for the History of Science are coordinating a webinar that brings together philosophers, historians, and researchers in psychiatry, psychology, and neuroscience.

(1945) Goldstein-Scheerer Test, Part of Goldstein-Scheerer Object Sorting Test
Retrieved from <https://library-artstor-org.travelmagic.mpiwg-berlin.mpg.de/asset/26434630>.
Licensed under CC BY-NC-SA.

Upcoming dates

All talks take place
on Thursdays,
3-4.30 pm (CET).

To join, please register by email to [officekeuck@
mpiwg-berlin.mpg.de](mailto:officekeuck@mpiwg-berlin.mpg.de).

Let us know if you wish to be notified about other events related to the research groups.

September 23

Sarah Marks (London)

Neurasthenia, the International Classification of Diseases, and Psychiatry in the Socialist World

October 14–15

Working Group Workshop in Bordeaux

November 25

Denny Borsboom (Amsterdam)

The Network Approach to Psychopathology

December 16

Peter Zachar (Montgomery)

Non-specific (Generic) Psychopathology:
Considerations from the Theory of Open Concepts

January 20

Eran Tal and Sebastian Rodriguez Duque (Montreal)

Responsible Mental Health Measures that are Valid and Fit for their Purpose

February 10

Hanna van Loo and Jan-Willem Romeijn (Groningen)

Thick descriptions in psychopathology: Ryle meets Kraepelin