

The Heavens on Earth: Observatories and Astronomy in Nineteenth-Century Science and Culture

Editor(s): David Aubin, Charlotte Bigg, H. Otto Sibum

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction: Observatory Techniques in Nineteenth-Century Science and Society / David Aubin, Charlotte Bigg, and H. Otto Sibum	1
1. The Astronomical Capital of the World: Pulkovo Observatory in the Russia of Tsar Nicholas I / Simon Werrett	33
2. The Jesuit on the Roof: Observatory Sciences, Metaphysics, and Nation Building / Massimo Mazzotti	58
3. Eclipse Politics in France and Thailand, 1868 / David Aubin	86
4. Keeping the Books at Paramatta Observatory / Simon Schaffer	118
5. Training Seafarers in Astronomy: Methods, Naval Schools, and Naval Observatories in Eighteenth- and Nineteenth-Century France / Guy Boistel	148
6. Astronomy as Military Science: The Case of Sweden, ca. 1800–1850 / Sven Widmalm	174
7. Geodesy and Map Making in France and Algeria: Between Army Officers and Observatory Scientists / Martina Schiavon	199
8. Michelson and the Observatory: Physics and the Astronomical Community in Late-Nineteenth-Century America / Richard Staley	225
9. Even the Tools Will Be Free: Humboldt's Romantic Technologies / John Tresch	253
10. "I thought this might be of interest . . .": The Observatory as Public Enterprise / Theresa Levitt	285
11. Staging the Heavens: Astrophysics and Popular Astronomy in the Late Nineteenth Century / Charlotte Bigg	305
12. The Berlin Urania, Humboldtian Cosmology, and the Public / Ole Molvig	325
Bibliography	345
About the Contributors	367
Index	369